

Lecture with

Adele Clarke

A History of Qualitative Inquiry in the U.S. Post WWII with Special Focus on Grounded Theory and Situational Analysis

Wed. the 24th (4:30 – 6:30 p.m) of June 2015
Internationales Begegnungszentrum (IBZ) Munich,
Amalienstr. 38

Discussants: Reiner Keller (University of Augsburg)
& Jörg Strübing (University of Tübingen)
Moderation: Hella von Unger (LMU Munich)

Workshop with Adele Clarke

Doing Situational Analysis

Mon. the 22nd (1-6 p.m.)
& Tue. the 23rd (9:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.) of June 2015
Internationales Begegnungszentrum (IBZ) Munich, Amalienstr. 38

Registration*: situationsanalyse@soziologie.uni-muenchen.de

Deadline for Registration: 31st of March 2015

Registration Fee* (Workshop): 40 Euro

*only required for the workshop, not the lecture

Further information: www.qualitative-sozialforschung.soziologie.uni-muenchen.de

Lecture and workshop are organized by:
Prof. Dr. Hella von Unger (Institute of Sociology; LMU Munich) in cooperation with
Prof. Dr. Reiner Keller (Chair of Sociology; University of Augsburg)

Adele E. Clarke is Professor Emerita of Sociology and History of Health Sciences at the University of California, San Francisco. Trained by Anselm Strauss, she has been using and teaching grounded theory since 1980 and has developed her own approach – Situational Analysis: Grounded Theory After the Postmodern Turn (Sage, 2005)

Universität
Augsburg
University